

Class 24: Recursion Basics, Continued

Held: Monday, 3 March 2008

Summary: We continue our initial explorations of recursion.

Notes:

- Like most of you, I'm incredibly frustrated by Friday's events. If there are recommendations you have for things to do in class, please let me know.
- Are there questions on Assignment 6?
- The reading for Tuesday is available: Recursion with Helper Procedures. (Wouldn't you know that the first time I have a reading available far in advance, I delay it.)
- I will do my best to distribute the next exam on Wednesday. (I've written a draft, but I want time to iron out bugs.)

Overview:

- Designing a recursive procedure.
- More time for lab.
