With scarcely any thing to do
I have a Sunday date or two.

The identity of "T. W. D. B."
Is this a monument of truth,
Will he disclaim this month at least
That W. D. B. probably will be in Europe, and may be reached at that address by his friends.

It is reported that a Federal League "pink" trial to sign up Players Wezakoff and Stevens, after watching the games of some of the "real" clubs of the "Lift." No agreement was reached, because the latter refused to forsake his amateur standing whatever.

J. W. V. has adopted the "Cromax" as his official campaign grand.

Mr. Dickerson and Professors Per- ing and Burr left Grinnell in company the other day, equipped with <unknowable> and destinations. Cathedral, the American forces captured Vera Cruz.

Shuffling discovery by S. B. Sheer.

Anonymous detective states that the dismantling of "Bump Rock" was done by a man wearing Spalding's uniform, as evidenced by the foot prints about the rock.

The special trains for the Benton and Black discovered a cluse that appears to have escaped them. Police headquarters inside the rock, but do not say they found the murderer's handkerchief, one of which was surmised to have been cradled by a portion of a portrait of a trouper.

With such spring rains, those yellow Glee Club ties become less so.

Manne Hall, "T," spent the weekend at her home in Newton.
